Preschool aged children develop social emotional skills rapidly, helping them manage stress, solve problems, and succeed at school.

Kindergarten teachers look for three SE skills in students

- Can follow directions
- Takes turns and shares
- Pays attention

Five components of proven SE programs

- Improve classroom management
- Build students’ skills
- Include professional development
- Involve parents
- Integrate with academics